Invitation to the Confucius Institute at Edge Hill University

It is my great pleasure to invite you as a Volunteer Mandarin Teacher to the Confucius Institute at Edge Hill University to conduct work placement for 12 months under the China-UK Mandarin Teachers Scheme. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Your visit is supernumerary and not to fill a job vacancy. It has been approved and sponsored by the Centre for Language Education and Cooperation who have confirmed they will provide monthly expenses to cover your visit. You will return to China at the end of your 12-month visit [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Edge Hill University is an ambitious organisation eager to continue to build its research capacity, and we welcome the active involvement of partners and visiting staff in achieving our learning and teaching, and research goals. We therefore look forward to you visiting the Confucius Institute at Edge Hill University and expect the Institute to benefit from the research and knowledge of Chinese Culture and Language that you have developed in your role with the Confucius Institute at Edge Hill University.

Should you need any further assistance in the interim, please contact [REDACTED]
