To: [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

We have completed the compilation of information in response to your request.

We can confirm that we do hold information of the description specified in your request and this information is provided below.

Your request and our response

Do the staff from the PRC at the University's Confucius Institute have to abide by Chinese law on campus?
Has the University entered into agreements that demand as much?

All UCL IOE Confucius Institute staff are employed under UCL terms and conditions, and abide by English Law. The university has not entered into any agreements that demand otherwise. There are no staff sent from PRC working for UCL IOE CI on the UCL campus.

You are free to use any information supplied for your own use, including for non-commercial research purposes. The information may also be used for the purposes of news reporting. However, any other type of re-use, for example by publishing or issuing copies to the public, will require the permission of the copyright owner.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, please email foirequests@ucl.ac.uk. Emails should include the words 'Internal Review' in the subject and be marked For the Attention of the Vice-President (Operations), alternatively you should write to:

Vice-President (Operations)

University College London

Gower Street

London

WC1E 6BT

Please note, complaints and requests for internal review received more than two months after the initial decision will not be handled.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner at the address given below. You should do this within two months of our final decision.

If you have any queries or concerns, please contact me using the details provided in this letter and including the request reference number.
