Dear [REDACTED]

RESPONSE FOIA/23/014

Further to your Freedom of Information request regarding the University's Confucius Institute (CI), in particular to the roles at the Confucius Institute for which individuals are recruited in China (that is the Chinese language teachers, and the 'Chinese co-director'), please be advised that the CI teachers recruited in China are not employed by Ulster University. They are given Associated Staff status which provides access to services ONLY such as email, blackboard, the library and photocopying.

If you are unhappy with how the University has dealt with your request you may raise the matter under the University's internal review process for FOI requests. Please submit written details of your appeal to Clare Jamison, University Secretary, University of Ulster, Coleraine BT52 1SA, email at universitysecretary@ulster.ac.uk The University will normally undertake to issue a decision on an appeal within 20 working days of receipt.

If you do not wish to submit an appeal to the University in relation to your request or if you are unhappy with the outcome of an appeal you may apply to the Office of the Information Commissioner. Full particulars of the FOI Act including the Information Commissioner's address may be found at www.ico.org.uk

Yours sincerely
