Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email.

We do not hold any information on the finances of the affiliated CCP branches of our partner Chinese universities.

If you are dissatisfied with this response, you may ask QMUL to conduct a review of this decision. To do this, please contact QMUL in writing (including by fax, letter or email), describe the original request, explain your grounds for dissatisfaction, and include an address for correspondence. You have 40 working days from receipt of this communication to submit a review request. When the review process has been completed, if you are still dissatisfied, you may ask the Information Commissioner to intervene. Please see www.ico.org.uk for details.

Yours sincerely

Queen Mary University of London

Subject: FOI Request: Finance of the Chinese Communist Party branch at the QMUL JElS

Dear Queen Mary University of London,

This is a Freedom of Information request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Please provide the following information regarding:

(1). Queen Mary University of London Engineering School

(2). Queen Mary School Hainan, Beijing University of Posts and Telecommunications

(3). Queen Mary School, Beijing University of Posts and Telecommunications

- Total annual budgets allocated to its directly-affiliated Chinese Communist Party branches by the Joint Educational Institutes during the years 2015-2023 respectively.

- Total annual expenditures spent by the Joint Educational Institutes' Chinese Communist Party branches during the years 2015-2023 respectively.

The sought information is vital for assessing how public resources are managed in contexts influenced by the Chinese Communist Party. Should the university not directly hold the requested information, I kindly ask for guidance on the appropriate entity or partner institution that does, ensuring compliance and facilitating informed public discourse on these matters.

If you feel that a substantive response to this request is not possible within a reasonable time frame, I would be grateful if you could contact me and provide assistance as to how I can refine the request. If you need any clarification, please contact me. I look forward to receiving a response in 20 working days. Many thanks.
