Nottingham Trent University Response:

Further to your email dated 28 March 2024 [REDACTED] under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the University has considered your request.

The University does not hold the information requested above and nor is it aware of an alternative entity that would do so.

The University has responded to the questions raised within your email dated 28 March 2024.

If you feel that the University has misunderstood your request in any way or you are dissatisfied with the response to your request, you can request an internal review by contacting foi.enquiries@ntu.ac.uk within 40 working days of the date of this response. Further information on the University's internal review procedure under Freedom of Information can be found at <https://www.ntu.ac.uk/about-us/governance/freedom-of-information>.

You also have the right, under Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to apply to the Information Commission for a decision as to whether your request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the requirements of Part 1 of the Act. The Commissioner will, however, normally require you to pursue an internal appeal to the University prior to considering such an application. You can find further information about the Act from the Information Commissioner at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Please quote the reference number 1630461 in any future communications.

Kind regards
